Terms & Conditions

Terms and Conditions of booking: -

This is the legal stuff and small print to do with booking a wedding at The Northorpe Barn. We hold weddings in The Barn to raise funds for Northorpe Hall Child and Family Trust, and these terms aim to ensure we generate reasonable returns from the site. All the terms in this document apply to all wedding bookings. We want you to enjoy your visit to Northorpe Hall, therefore if there is anything that is not satisfactory, please let us know.

Definitions:

'We', 'Us', 'Northorpe' and 'Northorpe Hall' means the property(ies) for which a contract is agreed. The property is owned by Northorpe Hall Child and Family Trust (Registered Charity).

The 'Client' and 'You' means the person or organising body/company responsible for the commissioning of and payment for the event. Where any party to this Agreement for the time being comprises two or more persons, obligations expressed or implied to be made by or with that party are deemed to be made by or with the persons comprising that party jointly and severally.

Venue Hire and Catering

A booking is considered 'provisional' until a deposit is paid. This means that the date is still available to be booked by someone else, but we would attempt where possible to notify you beforehand. No cancellation fees are payable on 'provisional' bookings.

Once a deposit is received and we have sent you confirmation by post or email, the booking is then confirmed. A deposit is 50% of the venue hire charge.

Once a booking has been confirmed, the deposit paid is non-refundable.

If a price change occurs within the organisation, we will honour prices given in the confirmation.

You must book for all the time you need the room – including setting up and clearing out. You may be charged extra if you overstay your booking period or come into the venue earlier than agreed.

If you cancel your booking, no monies paid will be refunded to you. You may be able to transfer your booking to another date subject to availability and providing this is agreeable with all parties concerned. You should make this request in writing.

If we should have to cancel your booking for reasons beyond our control, we may offer to transfer your booking to a new date subject to availability. Where no agreement can be reached, all monies paid to us by you will be refunded to you.

All bookings must include a food option. All weddings must include 2 food options. Final numbers for catering must be confirmed 1 month before the date of the event so that these can be invoiced. After this point, a reduction in numbers is treated as a cancellation and no refund will be offered.

For all bookings there will be a bond payment required as outlined on the current price list. This is to be paid before the wedding. It will be repaid to the client following the event provided that none of the booking terms & conditions have been broken.

You may not bring your own food and drink into the venue. An additional charge, up to the whole of the bond, may be made if external caterers are used without permission, or other food or drink is consumed on the premises. We reserve the right to remove any food or drink items which may be brought into the venue and will return these at the end of the event. This excludes the wedding cake & any 'sweetie cart/table' arrangement and non-alcoholic wedding 'favours'

Any 3rd Party contractors arranged by the client e.g. musicians, Ice Cream Vans/Candy Floss stalls will be required to provide evidence of suitable public liability insurance. We accept no responsibility for services or actions of such contractors. There may be additional charges applied to some services.

Catering must be booked for at least 65 guests for every event booked. This must be from the options in the brochure. A choice from the day menu and the late supper options must be made for a wedding booking.

Payment

We do not offer any discounts of our prices as all proceeds go towards funding our charitable activities.

The outstanding balance for your wedding will be invoiced 28 days before the booking date and payment is due on receipt of this invoice. Any additional services or catering ordered or provided after this point will be invoiced at a later date, payment is due on receipt of such an invoice.

Please note that once full payment has been made, we are unable to offer any refunds.
